

CENTRAL COMMUNITY CENTER

Central Rural Electric Cooperative offers a Community Center for use by cooperative members, non-members, not-for-profit groups and businesses. The meeting room is located on the Central campus, to the west of the main office and has the ability to accommodate up to 100 people.

Guidelines for Community Center use:

- Reservations MUST be made at least 30 days in advance but not in excess of one year in advance. Reservations will be taken and considered in the order they are received.
- The rental fee (cash or check) must be received before the date is secured on the calendar. Upon receiving the rental fee, Central will notify the requester that the reservation is approved. If the date is no longer available, the fee will be returned to the requester.
- Central Rural Electric Cooperative members and non-profit organizations may rent the room for $50 per day.
- Non-members and businesses may rent the room for $100 per day.
- Any damage to the Community Center as determined by Central Rural Electric Cooperative during its use will be the financial responsibility of the individual that makes the reservation.
- Reoccurring meetings are not allowed. A rental fee and application is needed for each meeting.
- Alcohol is not allowed in the Community Center or on Central's campus.
- The Community Center along with the entire Central campus is a tobacco free zone.
- A limited number of tables and chairs will be made available. Set-up and tear down is the responsible of the individual making the reservation. Tables and chairs should be put back as they were upon arrival.
- Catering is allowed and a limited kitchen is available for use. All trash, leftover food, dishes, etc... are the responsibility of the individual or group using the facility and must be removed after use. A dumpster is located northeast of Central's headquarters building.
- All surfaces (tables, counters, etc.) must be wiped down following use.
- Nothing may be affixed to the walls at any time. Marker boards are available on the wall.
- Central will not provide a computer for use. However, the requester may bring a laptop or tablet to connect to television screens via an HDMI connector.
- Guest Wi-Fi access is available, however it should not be used for streaming of entertainment services (Netflix, Hulu, Amazon Prime, etc.) Information on accessing Wi-Fi is available in the room.
- Central reserves the right to refuse use of the room to any person or group.
- The Community Center max occupancy is 100 people.
